

Time Spent on Capstone Project

Timesheet
January:	Hours:
7	2	Start of the semester; updating repositories and everything.
8	5	Start of Capstone; going through the project and refreshing my memory.
9	0
10	0
11	1	Getting things prepared.
12	10	Got stuck on getting the libraries to work. Struggling with trying to get anything to work.
13	10	Continuing to struggle with trying to get the proper python libraries to work with Windows.
14	2	Taking a day off to rest. Met with Evert about the project.
15	5	Working on the project from home.
16	0
17	0
18	9	Working on it from work. Decided to nuke the library that I was trying to work with. Using a new one now.
19	5	Getting frustrated with the project. Started on my abstract for ORD.
20	0	Started to get sick, taking time off.
21	0	Holiday & sick.
22	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
23	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
24	10	Getting more prepared for ORD. Trying to create some code to work on this. The libraries aren't helping still.
25	4	Getting to the point of frustration. All signs are pointing towards Windows not being compatible with the libraries.
26	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
27	9	Bit the bullet. Nuked my Windows idea and installing Linux Mint.
28	8	Got my abstract turned in. Meeting with Evert. Almost immediately got a working model on the system.
29	5	Got the model to print out screens. Wrote a script to read the .data file I'm working with.
30	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
31	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
February
1	8	Meeting with Evert. Got my report turned in to Ms. Baugher. Working on trying to get the two scripts to work in tandem.
2	2	Sick, but working a little bit before taking a break.
3	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
4	0	Sick, studying for the GRE.
5	0	GRE Day.
6	0	Studying for Calculus exam.
7	0	Calculus Exam.

9	0
10	0
11	2	Getting everything set up for the poster for ORD.
12	0	Today's update. Nothing to report yet. In Capstone as I write this.
13	0
14	5	Getting ready for ORD
15	1	I have exams coming up so I will work on the project whenever possible.
16	3	Not much to report, mainly just trying to clean up code and figure out a few possible workarounds for the errors I'm getting.
17	0
18	0
19	0
20	4	More bashing my head against the keyboard, trying to get the program to actually work sometimes.
21	3
22	2
23	8	A lot of work with not much to show for it. Stuck with updating a lot and had to ultimately nuke my linux VM. Most of this time was used for re-installing all of what I needed.
24	2
25	5	Small breakthrough in my research. Found a way to properly import a csv into python into an array.
26	4
27	0
28	0
March
1	6	Started trying to clean up my code a bit and impliment try/catch statements to be able to make it less buggy.

Time Spent on Capstone Project

16	4	Working on this overnight. Not much of interest. Looking into a new library that may be a good alternative.
17	3	Working on this overnight. Not much of interest.
18	3	Continuing working overnight on this. Going to hopefully not crash during the day due to working overnight.
19	0	Big exam coming up. Unsure how much time I'll have to work on the project.
20	0
21	2	Updated timesheet and was working on the code a bit more. Getting some odd errors now.
22	0
23	4	Working on it overnight. Reached out to Devin earlier to talk about what he thinks I need to do.
25	0
26	0
27	6	Spending most of the day working on this. Really getting to the crunch time. Needing to keep my mind off of all the stress.
28	1
29	3
30	5	Still nothing of note to pass on. Just working on whatever I can. I'm feeling the hurt of not having anyone I can work with.
31	2
